Plaintiff, United States of America, having filed its Complaint herein on January 27, 1972, and the plaintiff and the defendant, by their respective attorneys, having severally consented to the entry of this Final Judgment without trial or adjudication of any issue of fact or law herein, and without this Final Judgment constituting evidence or an admission by any party signatory hereto with respect to any such issue;

NOW, THEREFORE, before the taking of any testimony, and without trial or adjudication of any issue of fact or law herein, and upon consent of the parties hereto, it is hereby

I

This Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action and of each of the parties hereto, and the Complaint states claims upon which relief may be granted against the defendant under Section 1 of the Act of Congress of July 2, 1890, entitled "An act to protect trade and commerce against unlawful restraints and monopolies," commonly known as the Sherman Act, as amended.

II

The provisions of this Final Judgment shall be binding upon defendant, its officers, directors, agents, employees, and subsidiaries and upon all those persons in active concert or participation with the defendant who receive actual notice of this Final Judgment by personal service or otherwise.

III

Within sixty (60) days of the entry of this Final Judgment, defendant shall distribute a copy of this Final Judgment to each of its current members and former members as shown on the attached list designated as Schedule A, and thereafter shall dissolve forthwith. The remaining assets, if any, shall be applied to the outstanding fine levied against the defendant as a part of the Final Judgment entered on March 7, 1972, in United States v. ## IV

For the purpose of determining or securing compliance with this Final Judgment, any duly authorized representative of the Department of Justice shall, upon written request of the Attorney General or the Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Antitrust Division, and on reasonable notice to the defendant, made to its principal office, be permitted, subject to any legally recognized privilege:

The defendant, upon such written request of the Attorney General or the Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Antitrust Division, shall submit reports in writing with respect to any of the matters contained in this Final Judgment as may from time to time be requested. No information obtained by the means provided in this Section IV shall be divulged by any representative of the Department of Justice to any person other than a duly authorized representative of the Executive Branch of the plaintiff, except in the course of legal proceedings to which the United States is a party for the purpose of securing compliance with this Final Judgment, or as otherwise required by law.
